

Are you READING This Year's BOOK

ORPHAN TRAIN

BY CHRISTINA BAKER KLINE

READERS OF THIS YEAR'S SELECTION WILL BECOME ENCHANTED with the two main characters of Christina Baker Kline's novel -- 91 year old Vivian Daly who re-lives her original journey westward on the Orphan Train and Molly Ayer, a troubled teen who, although reluctant at first, connects with Vivian as she shares her life story. Vivian's poignant reverie begins as the pair explores the contents of old trunks stored in the attic of a Victorian home located in coastal Maine.

These trunks hold remnants of Vivian's life as she shares with Molly the struggles that she experienced during her adventure west on the "Orphan Train." This is a story based on history and told with empathy and love.

Both the characters described above uncover little-known truths that impacted and shaped Vivian's life while exploring reflections of the true experiences of many young passengers who were headed west in the search for a home.

Through the sharing, Molly finds that she and Vivian share have many parallels. Molly is a Penobscot Indian---an outsider raised by strangers who also has unanswered questions about her past. Through their connection they find rewarding answers to the mysteries that have troubled both of them during their lives. Readers won't want to put this book down and will find that the characters will remain with them long after the last page is turned.

The regional reading campaign, named One Book, One Community is intended to promote the value of reading by recommending a compelling book that links the large community in a common conversation. One Book programs encourage dialogue about a particular book, but also foster lifelong learning and the development of a strong community identity. Several communities across the country have initiated "One Book" efforts, but One Book, One Community is the largest such effort in Pennsylvania with 85 participating libraries. Organizers and librarians in the region will encourage residents to read the book during January and February and to attend free programs and discussions to learn more about this captivating novel.

About this Year's Book...

ORPHAN TRAIN

Between 1854 and 1929, so-called orphan trains ran regularly from the cities of the East Coast to the farmlands of the Midwest, carrying thousands of abandoned children whose fates would be determined by luck or chance. Would they be adopted by a kind and loving family or would they face a childhood and adolescence of hard labor and servitude? As a young Irish immigrant, Vivian Daly was one such child, sent by rail from New York City to an uncertain future a world away. Returning east later in life, Vivian leads a quiet, peaceful existence on the coast of Maine, the memories of her upbringing rendered a hazy blur. But in her attic, hidden in trunks, are vestiges of a turbulent past. Seventeen-year-old Molly Ayer knows that a community-service position helping an elderly widow clean out her attic is the only thing keeping her out of juvenile hall. But as Molly helps Vivian sort through her keepsakes and possessions, she discovers that she and Vivian aren't as different as they appear. A Penobscot Indian who has spent her youth in and out of foster homes, Molly is also an outsider being raised by strangers, and she, too, has unanswered questions about the past. Moving between contemporary Maine and Depression-era Minnesota, Orphan Train is a powerful tale of upheaval and resilience, second chances, and unexpected friendship.

How is the Book Selected?

A selection committee made up of community members representing all participating counties, reviews a number of books based upon broad criteria that include:

- A major author with a body of work, or an author who has received lasting literary recognition
- An author or recognized experts on the author, who would be willing to engage in discussion with readers at several events
- A good discussible book
- A book that is available in quantity, at a reasonable cost, in various media formats (paperback, large print, audio, or video)
- A book that is accessible to emerging adult readers (up to a high school reading level).

About the Author...

CHRISTINA BAKER KLINE IS A NOVELIST, NONFICTION WRITER AND editor. In addition to the #1 New York Times bestselling Orphan Train, her novels include Bird in Hand, The Way Life Should Be, Desire Lines and Sweet Water. Kline was born in Cambridge, England, and raised there as well as in the American South and Maine. She is a graduate of Yale, Cambridge, and the University of Virginia, where she was a Henry Hoyns Fellow in Fiction Writing. In addition to Fordham, she has taught fiction and nonfiction writing, poetry, English literature, literary theory, and women's studies at Yale, New York University, and Drew University. She is a recent recipient of a Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation Fellowship, a Writer-in-Residence Fellowship at the Virginia Center for the Creative Arts, and a Fordham Faculty Research Grant.

Kline has worked as a caterer, cook, and personal chef on the Maine coast, Martha's Vineyard, and in Charlottesville, Virginia. She lives in an old house in Montclair, New Jersey, with her husband, David Kline, and three boys, Hayden, Will, and Eli. She spends summers with extended family in an even older house on Mount Desert Island in Maine.

Programs for Everyone

This year 85 libraries in the six-county region that spans Berks, Dauphin, Lebanon, Lancaster, Perry and York Counties, five area campuses of Harrisburg Area Community College and Lebanon Valley College-- are participating along with community partner organizations. Program schedules for book discussion groups, music, and other innovative activities will be available at all participating public libraries and throughout the community. This information may also be accessed online at www.oboc.org. Nearly all of the programming is free of charge.

A CELEBRATION FOR READERS

To celebrate the end of the campaign we are going to build on last year's success by holding another Readers' Celebration on Sunday, March 22 from 2:00 – 5:00 pm at the Pennsylvania Railroad Museum in Strasburg, Lancaster County. The event is free and open to the public -- there will be entertainment, refreshments by Isaac's and a special Silent Auction to benefit future One Book Campaigns.

Live music will be performed by Fire in the Glen--a Lancaster County-based Celtic band that was first formed in 1999. Performing a lively mix of Irish and Scottish songs and tunes, the band guarantees a fun and energetic show. The band today features Tom Knapp, Amanda Wells and Durelle Leaman.

Although admission is free to One Book participants, a ticket will be needed to enter the museum. Details will be available at oboc.org in mid-February.

Fire in the Glen

AUTHOR TO VISIT LEBANON

Another special event that is nicely timed with this year's campaign is the appearance of Christina Baker Kline at the Bethel Israel Synagogue in Lebanon, on Tuesday, May 12. For ticket information, visit <http://congregation-beth-israel.com> or call 717-273-2669. Also check the www.oboc.org site for this information.

RIDING THE RAILS IN THE LATE

1800s
Thursday, March 5
6:30 pm
Steam into History
2 West Main Street
New Freedom, PA 17349
The Orphan Trains took children to the Midwest in search of a new life. Join us in the station to hear how train travel in the late 1800s would have been on a trip across country. Were they warm? How did they eat? Sleep? Tour a replica coach from the era. Presented at no charge by Paul Smith Library of Southern York County. Space is limited. Please call the library at 717-235-4313 for reservations.
